

1. Leaving Yaounde Airport - Flying to Douala
2. Taken from the plane on flight to Douala
3. Airfield at Yaounde, the capitol city
4. Air terminal at Yaounde - just opened in Aug 1953
5. Church at the Mission Station at Yaounde
6. View of the residential area - Ebolowa
7. Another view of the mud huts - Ebolowa
8. Palaver House - Ebolowa (Only for men)
9. Market Place - Ebolowa - typical dry goods store in background. They sell cloth, irons, charcoal, laterns, etc.
10. Another view of the market place in the city Ebolowa. Taken late P.M. Very few people remaining - it is usually very crowded.
11. Usually men, occasionally women, have Singer sewing machine outside of dry goods store to take orders to sew the cloth.
12. Mobiloil sign - strange to see in the Camerouns. African Bar presents one of the greatest problems in cities. With the small amount of money obtained from selling cocoa, etc. they spend it here. The cities are becoming crowded with many who don't have enough to keep them busy. Murder, thievery, drunkenness, etc. are resulting.
13. Paved road- I think the only one of its kind outside of Yaounde, extending from Yaounde to Foulassi.
14. Another view of this improved road.
15. Taken near Metet in a small village off this paved road. Shows how they begin to build their homes.
16. After they tie all the poles in place, then they apply mud on walls.
17. ~~Probably the home~~ Interior of one of the mud huts. Unusually nice - (Double exposure)
18. Probably the home of a head man, usually selected by the Government. Taken in small village along this new paved road.
19. A few of the animals always lying around in the villages. Many animals are gotten with the price of the dowries they ask.
20. Another view of the newer and bigger home with a ten roof, larger windows and a porch to improve its appearance.
21. Typical mud walled hut with very small windows.
22. Tomb in front yard of village near Metet. Those people who no longer believe in witchcraft build fences around their relatives' graves to keep out the grave robbers (pagans).
23. Road going to Ebamina.
24. Road with typical bridge on way to Ebamina.
25. Another obstacle to drive around on way to Ebamina
26. Enroute to Ebamina
- () 26. Youth Conference - Ebamina. Over 1000 people crowded into this small Chapel. They seem eager to hear of a purposeful life.
-  27 Enroute to Ebamina, the natives from a village nearby gave assistance.
29. Hunting Party we met along this road, a short distance from Metet.
30. Same party. They have nets around their necks and spears.
31. Same party - men in this group caught only a small antelope and another animal (I don't know what it is)
32. Met these men with a herd of cattle enroute to Mkol Muolan. They walk this cattle from the north to the jungle area.
33. This man and his son are traders who brought their curios to the Mission Station in Yaounde.
34. More of these traders who wanted to bargain with us at Elat.
35. Taken at Elat the mission station located in the city of Ebolowa. They stayed nearly six hours.

37. Many wore costumes for their celebration
38. Many brought their prized possessions.
39. Same place - some celebrators.
40. This native was decorated by the French Government for 20 years of faithful service to his people. He is a fine Christian who has been trained by the Mission Doctors.
41. The natives brought their musical instruments to accompany their dancing.
42. More of the same.
43. These three people live at Njazen, the leper colony. They care for 1200 lepers. Approximately two thousand persons live there. Their hospital is directly behind them. It has only one operating table.
44. Foreground - foundation for their new hospital.
Background - View of some of the homes of the lepers.
45. The building has begun. The lepers are doing the building.
46. One of the newest homes completed, by a leper at the colony. The American missionaries are encouraging them to build nicer homes with larger windows.
47. A child at Njazen. His spots are noticeable. This is an early stage of the disease.
48. Another child at Njazen
49. Saw mill at Njazen
50. Foreground - burned land - ready to spade for a garden.
Background - The shed where bricks are made by the lepers.
51. Penicillin is used for the cure of these sores and ulcers which many of the lepers have. This shed at Njazen is where this is performed.
52. A patient at Njazen
53. A patient with her baby returning to the colony from her garden.
54. Same people - this was taken in the late afternoon.
55. A patient bathing in a small stream at Njazen.
56. A patient at Njazen, sitting in front of his hut. He is beginning to weave a basket.
57. Three patients who are supposed to be quarrying.
58. Patient at Njazen - probably the worst case at this colony.
59. The same woman. She is happy in spite of her condition.
60. Newly built home of the Missionaries at Njazen.
61. The pet gorilla at Njazen.
62. He is quite playful
63. Butch is not camera shy!!.
64. The drum at Metet Mission station. Tells the time of day & calls people for services.
65. Missionary residence at Metet.
66. Another missionary residence at Metet. Looks are deceiving!!
67. The palm birds ruin the trees.
68. Foreground - A medical assistant. Background - Relatives of the patients who are scheduled for operations waiting outside the hospital. They care for the patient during the convalescing period.
69. The hospital at Metet
70. New operating room in the process of being built. In the background is the operating room now in use.
71. Preparation hall - Metet. The nurses are trained by the Missionaries.
72. This tiny hall is also used for the dressing of the incisions.
73. This is a normal day's work. Operations like these are performed constantly.
A doctor told me he has only had one case of appendicitis in six years, but as many as 60 hernia operations in one day.
74. Hospital wards at Metet.
75. Orphans at Metet. Cared for till seven years old then returned to their villages.

76. Man in foreground is head workman at Metet. Picture is taken in his village nearby. He is boss of the project of building a new church at Mission Station.
77. Scaffolding is up and truss ready to be lifted to position - Metet.
78. Methods are crude - results are tremendous!
79. School town - Metet. Dormitories and classrooms.
80. Where a few children can receive an education - equivalent to our grades 3 - 8. All studies are in French. The school is under the French rules of education.
81. This young man is secretary to the Superintendent at Metet. These are his children,
82. This man is pastor of the church at Metet.
83. This is his church.
84. Another view - taken inside.
85. Still another view of this church
86. This is taken across the road looking at the construction new to the old church.
87. Typical loads of a woman coming back from her garden.
88. Another woman quite loaded down. School building - Metet - is in background.
89. Taken on a road near Ebolowa.
90. Another chore for the women. Nyong River.
91. Taken in a small village near Metet
92. Taken in front of a native's hut on the Mission Station at Metet.
93. Taken at a small village near Metet - children standing by the Church in village.
94. Taken in village near Metet.
- 95/ These are their only playthings.
96. Same place. No grass in front of mud huts. The government encourages them to keep it bare so the mosquitos won't be so bothersome and sickness result. Erosion is quite bad in some places.
97. These children were photographed at Elat.
98. " " " " Fonlassi, the station where normal school is located.
99. Taken in a village near Metet.
100. Children bathing in stream on road from Yaounde to Nkol Mvolan.
101. Child at Yaounde Station.
102. These children were photographed at Metet.
103. Elat station.
104. Taken in front of the missionary residence at Metet.
- 105/ Photographed at Elat.
106. Taken at a small leper colony about two miles from Metet.
107. Metet - lovely baskets.
108. Metet - typical lounging garments for men.
109. More lepers.
110. - Metet - Quite a person!!
111. Medical clinic held at Enfoulan for preschool children. This nurse ran the clinic.
112. Children who came to the village for the clinic.
113. More of them
11. Tables were set up in front of the huts for the examining of specimens.
115. More examining at the clinic. These medical assistants came with us from Metet.
116. This is how they wait so patiently for results. Notice the child's navel. They massage the navel soon after birth so it will extend from the abdomen. They are being taught that these children will need operations for umbilical hernias.
117. The church at Enfoulan where the nurse had a devotional service, then gives out the medicine.
118. New missionary residence at Nkol Mvolan.
119. New school dormitory in process of being built to replace the one in background.
120. Missionary residence - Nkol Mvolan
121. View from missionary residence.
122. Hospital - medical assistants & nurses - Nkol Mvolan
123. Approved For Release 1999/09/10 : CIA-RDP83-00423R001401000003-2

125. New ward in process of construction.
126. Church in the nearby town called Mbong Mbang.
127. Ferry crossing the river (Nyong ??) enroute to Nkol Mvolan.
128. Looking upstream from the ferry.
129. New classrooms at Libamba, site of this college
130. New student dorms in process of construction.
131. Same classroom building, picture taken from the other side.
132. Rapids in the jungle.
133. Same spot.
134. Looking downstream.
135. Looking toward the water.
136. Lovely spot.
137. Same place in the jungle.
- 138-140. Pet Chimpanzee taken in front of the Hope School at Elat. This is the school and dormitory for the missionary children.
- 141-142. Hippo that was shot by a hunting party. It weighed two-tons.
143. Audio-Visual truck photographed on the mission station at Elat.
144. The printing press at Elat where all the Bibles and literature is printed for the mission station
- 145-149. Christian converts of the mission who bring fruits & vegetables in appreciation of change in their lives. Taken at Elat.
150. Mission meeting held at Elat. Town of Ebolowa is in the background.
- 151 Africans who were caring for the grounds.
152. Taken at Ekat.
153. View of mission station - Elat- looking toward Frank James Industrial school.
154. Behind a missionary residence at Elat.
155. Dental clinic at Elat. Only facilities of its kind in Camerouns.
156. Their mobile unit - Elat.
157. Minister of the church at Elat. Picture taken at Metet mission station.
158. This is his great church at Elat.
159. Church at the Mission Station called Bibia in town of Tolodorf.
160. Minister of this church and his family. He studied in America, for one year. He speaks English very well. A fine christian family.
- 161-163 Seminary at Bibia mission station where the African pastors are trained.
164. The Bibia station where their Easter services are held.
165. Newly completed church at Foullassi.
166. Church built by natives at Bafia, another mission station. The small paper bound book entitled "Bridge to Africa" by L.K.Anderson & W, Sherman Skuirer relates story of how this lovely church was built.
167. Huge kapok tree taken at Bibia.
168. Poinsettia plant at the Metet Mission Station.
169. Two people walking along the road from Metet to Foullassi. Shows contrast in Africa
170. Some Pygmies about one-quarter mile from the road a short distance from Nkol Mvolan. The dried leaves and ferns directly behind the pygmies are their homes. They are great hunters and each has a spear about twice the size of himself. The half-clothed person who is standing third from the left is a woman. They were shy and frightened and screamed when they saw us. Man in the background on the right is holding a cross-bow which the Africans also use to hunt.

-end-

CIA - 128395 - 126443 -

25 Nov 54